

She's Setting Me Up

Words and Music by Dan Curtis

©1990 all rights reserved

Every day they look better to me,
pretty girls I see on T.V.
I think I'll move ... to Hollywood

I lost my wife and I lost my job
I lost a fight in a bar,
but I've still got my dog. (dog effect)

(chorus)

She took my money but she didn't stop there,
stole my friends now she doesn't play fair;
broke my heart, stole my truck, what a shame.

She's setting me up and they're shaking me down.
She's shacking up with half of the town
Except the Sheriff, she pays him in cash.

(lead)

Johnny Law has been following me.
He's in with her and they're all after me.
She dates the Feds and lies about my pay.

Now I'm in jail for disturbing the peace.
and she's been seen with the Chief of Police
... out on the town with the local D.A.

(chorus)

(outro w/ ad lib)

I just hope she aint in love with the judge
I could really get the shaft here
...probably dates my attorney